

Learning to live without. Learning to live with.

Studies show that on any given day, 57% of people are grieving in some way. Each grief journey is unique and unmeasurable—each person's portion is a full portion. Our team is here to meet those who are grieving wherever they are. We are here to walk alongside you as you progress from fighting grief to learning to live with it. With time and steadfast guidance, we can help lift the heavy burden of grief that you are carrying and create more space for joy to fill up.

The grief journey is hard. Be willing to accept help from those who are skilled at navigating this journey. The Faith Hospice team will listen, comfort, and support you; all you have to do is ask.

Van Andel Hope and Healing Pavilion

Recognizing a greater need for grief support and bereavement counseling, we opened the Van Andel Hope and Healing Pavilion to provide a dedicated space for us to serve those struggling with the loss of a loved one. Along with areas for counseling and support groups, the pavilion offers peaceful and serene outdoor spaces for reflection and contemplation.

Grief Support Services

Individual Counseling

Compassionate and supportive bereavement care can help individuals of any age and families come to terms with their loss and move into the next chapter of their lives.

Support Groups & Workshops

Each month, we offer workshops and support groups to bring together people in similar situations and stages of grief. Workshops discuss topics like self-care, expressing grief, and coping during the holidays. Support Groups are tailored for those who have lost a partner or spouse, a parent or family member, or those tackling the later stages of grief.

Virtual Grief Counseling

Not having the tangible support of loved ones nearby can make the grieving process much more difficult. It can be easy to withdraw and adopt a mindset of dealing with things on your own. With virtual grief support, we can help those within our community and beyond. If you have out-of-town family members or friends who are grieving the loss of a loved one, please don't hesitate to recommend our services to them. If we are able to help, we will.

Spiritual Support

We offer a Christ-centered support group for anyone who wants to examine their journey of grief through a religious lens, finding solace and perspective from Biblical teachings.

Who We Serve

As a nonprofit and mission-driven organization, we are fully dedicated to the people we serve. Grief support services are primarily funded through generous donations from our community and, therefore, provided at no cost. Your loved one did not have to be a patient of Faith Hospice in order to receive support.
